In the name of God Amen

I John Fuller of New Town in the County of Middlesex in his Majesties Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England being weak in body, but in sound and disposing Memory, Prais be given to god for the same, to make this my last will and testament in mannon & form following, that is to say, first and principally I resign my soul into the merciful hands of almighty god my creator, assuredly hoping through the merits of my blessed saviour, to obtain pardon & remission of all of my sins and my body I commit to the earth whence it was taken, to be decently buried by the discretion of my executor herein after named, and as for the worldly goods and estate the lord hath lent me I dispose thereof as follows.

- First, I give and bequeath to my loving and dear wife Elizabeth a comfortable maintenance out of my movable estate and if that shall not be enoufe, then to have the liberty of any of my other estate, any thing hereafter to the contrary not withstanding, and a living in my now dwelling house and al this during her natural life, to be allowed her by my executors herein after named, out of my estate.
- 2 secondly I give and bequeath to my son John Fuller the housing and lands he now enjoys lying along the south side Charles River, adding thereto as much out of the farm I now live on, as shall make the same two hundred acres as I have butted and bounded the said addition to him and his heirs forever.
- 3 thirdly I give and bequeath to my son Jonathan Fuller the housing and land he now enjoys adding thereto out of the farmland I now live on as much as makes up the afores'd land one hundred and fifty acres as I have bounded the same, to him and his heirs executors and administrators forever.
- 4 fourthly I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Fuller the lands he now enjoys and also a piece of upland and meadowland over the brook at the upper end of the grate meadow, adjoining unto the land of Jn o Park to make him equal with the rest of my sons to him and his heirs forever.
- 5 fifthly I give and bequeath to my son Joshua Fuller the housing and lands he now liveth on to him and his heirs forever.
- 6 I give and bequeath to my son Jeremiah Fuller the lands I formerly gave him whereon he now liveth, adding thereto out of the farm abovesaid as much as maketh up what he already enjoyeth, one hundred and fifty acres as the farm is now butted and bonded, to him and his heirs forever, and it is further my will that if any of my above named sons shall by a joint consent agree to the altering of any of the bounds of the lands above given and bounded to them, nary thing contrary notwithstanding, and also it is my will that my above said sons shall each and every one of the have equall liberty to dig and cart of clay from my clay pits in the above said farm.
- 7 seventhly to add unto what I have formerly given unto my daughter Elizabeth Hide Dceac'd, I give and bequeath unto her children the which I have had the care of bringing up and maintaining what they have already had; and to my grandson, alias grandchild Jonathan Hide the youngest son of my abovesaid daughter, ten pounds in or as money to be paid to him by my son Joseph Fuller, when said Hide shall be twenty one years of age, and my said son Joseph to pay the same for the right and interest I have in the Malt house he now occupieth, and further it is my will that if the abovesaid malt house shall by casualty be burnt or any way destroyed by accidental cause, the abovesaid legacy of ten pounds to be paid to my five sons above named, and if said Jonathan Hide do not live to the age abovesaid, then my will is that the abovesaid ten pounds shall be equally divided between my three grandchildren viz Mary Brown, Elizabeth Hide, and Hannah Hide.

eightly I give and bequeath to my daughter Bethiah Bond twenty pounds in addition to what she hath already received of me towards her portion, to be paid her by my son Joseph Fuller, as followeth four pounds per year, until the whole sum be paid in consideration whereof I give to my son Joseph Fuller the land I purchased of Jeremiah Mass, be the same more or less.

9 ninthly I give and bequeath to my five sons abovesaid my mansion house, barns, outhouses, orchard and land containing two hundred and fifty acres be the same more of less to them and their heirs forever, to be equally divide between them at my decease provide my five sons abovesaid do comfortably and honorably maintain my abovesaid wife in sickness and health during her natural life, and further my will is that my abovesaid sons shall not allinate the above given and granted lands unto any stranger until first the next relation of the above said Fullers have the offer of it, and all the rest and residue of my estate goods and chattels, not herein before bequeathed after my debts and funeral expenses discharged, I do give and bequeath unto my vary dutifull sons John Fuller, Jonathan Fuller, Joseph Fuller, Joshua Fuller and Jeremiah Fuller, whom I do make sole executors of this my last will and testament revoking all other will by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirteenth day of January one thousand six hundred five six, & the seventh year of his Majesties Reign.
